Three-year sentence at Old Bailey for violent, extremist lectures

EXTREMIST LECTURES:
Ibrahim Hassan, 28

PROMOTED TERRORISM:
Shah Jalal Hussain, 31

TERROR PAIR SENT TO JAIL

TWO men have been jailed for three years each for teaching and promoting terrorism via the internet in east London.

Ibrahim Hassan, 28, of Carr Road, Walthamstow, pleaded guilty to disseminating terrorist material and encouraging terrorism.

He was jailed at the Old Bailey on Friday along with Shah Jalal Hussain, 31, of Cannon Street, Tower Hamlets, who pleaded guilty to the same offences.

The court heard how the case concerned lectures given by the two men. Recordings were then distributed which advocated violence and similar material that they propagated through a website they operated together. Police became aware of the existence of five files, in November 2012, that had been uploaded to the internet.

The files contained violent, extremist material and were assessed to be in breach of Section 1 of the Terrorism Act 2006. They included series of lectures entitled In Pursuit of Allah's Governance on Earth 'by Abu Nusaybah'.

Officers were able to identify Abu Nusaybah as being Ibrahim

Abdullah-Hassan. Shah Jalal Hussain was linked to the website via his pseudonym of Abu Muwahhid.

One of the videos advocated that Muslims engage in violent 'jihad'; in another video it was asserted that Muslims must support jihad 'physically and financially'. Officers also discovered a recording of a lecture, entitled Signs of a Good Death, in which Shah Jalal Hussain identified 20 ways in which a Muslim can die for Allah and be assured of a place in paradise.

Both men pleaded guilty on March 24 to disseminating terrorist publications under Section 2 of the Terrorism Act 2006 and the encouragement of terrorism under Section 1 of the Terrorism Act 2006.

Commander Duncan Ball, of the Metropolitan Police Service's Counter Terrorism Command, said: "These men posted material on the internet which clearly had the potential to incite terrorism and in doing so put public at risk."

"This case underlines our commitment and ability to tackle those who support and encourage terrorism, by whatever means they use."

Dentists filling charity coffers

A TEAM of dentists raised £6,500 for Great Ormond Street Hospital by taking part in a 5km fun run.

Team Longwood – part of the Longwood House Dental Care, in Longwood Gardens, Ilford – put on the trainers and running shorts for the RBC Race for the Kids, in Battersea Park.

Dr Tasleem Ahmed, principal dentist, was appointed as an ambassador earlier this year. She formed Team Longwood which consisted of 41 members, all of whom were dentists, consultants, staff members, family, friends and children – with the youngest participant being two years old.

Dr Tasleem Ahmed said: "We're honoured to support the Race for the Kids for the first time this year. We're thrilled to have entered more than 40 participants and hope to increase this number year on year. It's so inspiring to see everybody come together for such a fantastic cause and it's wonderful to know that it will help to make a difference to patients and families."

Team Longwood joined 6,000 runners including famous faces. All funds raised will go towards replacing cramped and outdated wards with new state-of-the-art facilities for patients.

It's not too late to sponsor Team Longwood. Just click on <http://goo.gl/36NKeQ> to donate online.

ECO-WINNER:
Alyssa Boyce
with her design

Alyssa bags top prize

A GREEN robot created by nine-year-old Alyssa Boyce has won first place in a competition to get people to recycle in east London.

Alyssa, a pupil at Handsworth Primary School, in Highams Park, collected cash and an award for her logo 'Recycle Rob'.

The competition was run by The Mall Walthamstow to tackle the overuse of plastic bags.

Shoppers can swap 10 plastic carrier bags at the centre's Ask Me Point for their own free cotton shopper 'bag for life'. The bag features Alyssa's design.

She said: "It feels amazing to win. I am very proud that my design of Recycle Rob is going to be on bags encouraging people to reuse and recycle."

The eco-themed art competition was entered by hundreds of children. Alyssa won a £50 voucher and her school collected £250 of art equipment on Tuesday.

Jill Augustin, headteacher of Handsworth Primary, said: "Our school eco-council encouraged children to enter The Mall's competition as we are keen to promote recycling within the community."

The Mall's environmental campaign is well timed as plans to introduce a 5p charge for carrier bags in England hit the headlines.

The Mall will be holding its own free Enviromall Day on Sunday June 15, when children and families can create their own unique Bag for Life with the help of a professional artist from Zinfinity.

Alasdair Currie, mall general manager, said the event, where eco advice will also be on offer, will run from 11.30am until 4.30pm.

Pre-register at the Ask Me Point or turn up on the day.

Bag facts...

■ Every year 10 billion plastic bags are used by shoppers – most end up in landfill sites and take hundreds of years to break down

■ Swap your plastic carrier bags for a Bag for Life from the Mall! (hurry – it's while stocks last).

■ Turn plastic bags into bin liners – keep them around the house to replace bin liners in the bathroom, office and bedrooms.

■ Put worn out plastic carrier bags in recycling points – many larger stores have collection points.

■ With a supermarket delivery, give the bags back to the driver.

■ Scrunch bags up to cushion delicate items in the post.

■ Use old plastic bags as a rain cover for your bike.

■ Poke small holes in a bag to drain toys in between bath times.

Youngster's family in bid to raise cash for cancer treatment in USA Who will help Joni?

By Suzi Muston

havering@yellowad.co.uk

A HORNCHURCH family desperately need help to save their little girl's life.

Two years ago, in 2011, when Joni Mai Stevens was just five years old, she began to suffer intolerable pain in her right thigh.

After taking her to the Hornchurch polyclinic, her family was told she had a haemotoma.

Joni and her family were then thrown into a whirlwind of hospital visits, where Joni had to have scores of often painful medical tests.

Mum Holly, 28, said: "Poor Joni had to have so many gruelling tests including a bone biopsy."

"After just over a week of waiting, we were informed she had what was known as Ewing's Sarcoma."

The condition is a rare sub group of primary bone tumours with just around 30 people (mostly teenage boys) diagnosed each year.

Holly added: "It was a very difficult year for all of us, Joni had 14 rounds of chemotherapy, various minor operations, a stem cell harvest and had her whole right femur and part of her hip removed and replaced with metalwork."

Joni was put into remission in 2012 and had to have endless amounts of physiotherapy to get her moving properly again and to get back to normal family life.

At this point, the family began to relax a little with Joni even returning back to school.

They all celebrated her being in remission for one year with a visit to Disneyland in Florida.

Holly added: "With normality, however, came a bunch of various niggles and trips to the GP for different aches and pains. All of which were seen as normal."

"Joni bumped her head, a normal thing for a seven-year-old to do but it did not disappear."

"I decided to call her oncology team after it had been there for six weeks. "She had a review and we were told she had a shadow in her chest and her cancer had returned to various sites which are all bone, one being the bump on her head."

Joni has recently had to have more rounds of aggressive chemotherapy and radio therapy.

Dad Kevin, 31, said: "She has been quite down because the chemotherapy destroyed her gullet and she had to have a pipe into her nose for quite a while because she couldn't eat."

"It's been very distressing."

Holly added: "Joni has endured so much in her seven years and to be honest, it's all very scary for her and us too. The rest all depends on what happens with the next lot of scan results."

Treatment for the disease is limited on the NHS.

The family now hopes to raise the more than £100,000 needed for Joni to be treated in America.

Readers are invited to a night of boxing on Saturday July 5 at Fiction night club, Romford, to raise money for Joni.

Plug for female plumbers

FREE PLACES:
On plumbing course

A 'GET Girls' plumbing campaign has been launched in Romford.

Dagenham College in Rush Green Road, Romford, is offering four girls the chance to achieve a city and guilds level two diploma in plumbing.

To be in with a chance of securing one of the four free coveted places, female plumbers-to-be simply need to write 100 words outlining why they would like to win a place on the course.

The fantastic four will then be selected by a judging panel made up of the board of directors from the college, with the winners announced in time for the next full term.

The news comes following research which showed more than a third of home owners said they would prefer a female plumber.

Despite this, however females remain severely under represented in plumbing, constituting just one per cent of the industry as a whole.

Testament to this, of the 150 students currently placed at CHOICE, just six are female.

Julie Spinks Director of WaterSafe said: "It's fantastic to see our 'Get Girls Plumbing' campaign is helping to spark industry debate." WaterSafe is the UK's national plumbing assurance scheme made up of water companies.

Youngsters turn into West End stars

By Suzi Muston

havering@yellowad.co.uk

A SHOW staged by Havering College raised the roof at a West End theatre.

The college in Hornchurch invited schools and other learning organisations to take part in a one-off production at Her Majesty's Theatre in Haymarket, London – the home of The Phantom of the Opera.

The world premier of Synergy Street, The Musical on Sunday, had cast members from the age of six upwards and included performers with learning or physical challenges. College bosses said there wasn't a dry eye in the house as 200 youngsters performed for an audience of more than 1,200.

Director/producer Peter Dayson brought together performers from places like Ravensbourne School, Harold Hill, and Corbets Tey School, Upminster. Mr Dayson said: "It takes a year to plan our annual community project. This was such a special day for all the students taking part – it's an experience that will live with all of us forever."

Among the cast was Shelley

Naor who gave her own thanks to college principal Maria Thompson after the finale. Shelley, 24, a foundation skills student based at the Havering College Quarles Campus, Harold Hill, said: "This was the best day of my life. I want to do it more and more."

Synergy Street's storyline was the battle to save a much-loved community centre from closure. Harvey – a springer spaniel-terrier cross owned by Havering College head of management accounts Barbara Bows – made his stage debut as the caretaker's dog.

RAISING THE ROOF: Havering children perform Synergy Street on the West End stage. Left, Harvey the terrier-spaniel cross, playing the caretaker's dog GENEROUS volunteers across Havering have given more time to the Met Police than any other London borough.

A total of 48 volunteers worked a record breaking 9,837 hours with the force last year.

Volunteers help out with administration, provide reception duty, help neighbourhood police teams, role play for police training and support the special constables.

Superintendent Cheryl Burden of Havering Police, said she was thrilled with the news.

She said: "I would like to add my own personal thanks for the assistance given to the officers of Havering by our own volunteers."

"They provided a superb support service and are greatly valued by all my officers."

Steve Smith, a volunteer for the past five years said: "I give my time in assisting the neighbourhood policing team and help to ensure the officers have more time to be visible on patrol, rather than having to complete paperwork in their office."

Michael Adamson the Met police volunteer manager for Havering, said: "The Met Police volunteers programme was established in 2001 with the primary aim of getting local communities more closely involved with their policing, and so improving the service we can offer."

"It is a London-wide network, operated via Met Police volunteers managers based on each borough and some specialist departments, whose role it is to recruit and support volunteers."

"Volunteers allow officers and staff to spend more time doing what they are trained to do."

HAVING residents are being asked to take care when withdrawing cash from machines across the borough.
A new scam has seen customers being distracted by other people when taking out money, usually by dropped paper or leaflets around the card machine. The card is then taken and used to either withdraw cash or used in shops.
Any card stolen should be reported to the police and any fraudulent activity that may be used on the card to Actionfraud on 0300 123 2040.

Motoring News

In-car parking spot location could soon be an option

FULL HOUSE:
The problem of parking your car is being tackled

Winning the space race

by Mike Waters

A NEW international report has been published which looks at intelligent ways of making it easier to find a parking space.

Struggling to find a spot is one of the great frustrations of driving and, with a growing number of vehicles on the road, it's not going to get any better.

Called Smart Parking for Smarter Cities, Beecham Research conducted trials in cities around the world, including Birmingham.

They involved using road-mounted sensors in busy shopping centres and equipping drivers with smartphone apps which accessed data collected from these sensors.

The result is a live map of where the spaces are so that motorists can find them quickly and easily. This approach delivers clear benefits – for the driver it saves them time, hassle, stress and reduces fuel consumption by eliminating the need to drive around for ages looking for a space.

For retailers and councils it makes it easier for visitors to get to shops and businesses.

The vehicle manufacturers also see the benefits and they are saying it is likely that this feature will be available from their in-car displays in the near future.

But the aspect of the report that's really interesting to me is that this is another example of how smartphone technology can provide effective solutions for drivers.

It must of course be used safely because we don't want to promote another in-car distraction, but when it's done properly there is great value to the idea.

As smartphone penetration grows and people become more and more used to downloading apps to solve their problems, it provides great possibilities to enhance the driving experience. I can see a clear trend emerging and, as long as the app functionality is useful, expect to see a boom in this area over the next few years.

● Mike Waters is senior insight and consultancy manager at Arval, the leading vehicle leasing and fleet management company.

CONDITIONS OF ACCEPTANCE FOR ALL ADVERTISEMENTS

Orders are accepted by the Publishers subject to the Standard Conditions agreed between the Newspaper Society and the Institute of Practitioners in Advertising. Save that:

1. Advertisements are accepted on the conditions that (a) descriptions relating to goods are accurate and in no way contravene the provisions of the Trade Descriptions Act 1968, and the Fair Trading Act 1973, and (b) the copy complies with the British Code of Advertising Practice. Advertisements offering credit or hire facilities must conform to the Consumer Credit (Advertisements) Regulations 1980.

2. 'Classified' Advertisers offering goods or service of a business, commercial or trade nature will, at the discretion of the Publishers, be deemed 'Trade Advertisers', and as such, must include their names in advertisements. A telephone number is an optional addition to these requirements and not an alternative.

To comply with the Business Advertisements (Disclosure) Order 1977, Trade Advertisers must make it clear that they are selling goods in the course of business either by content, format, size or place of the advertisement or by including words such as 'trade', 'dealer', 'agent', 'wholesaler', '(T)' etc. in the advertisement.

3. The Publishers accept no liability whatsoever for any loss or damage however caused arising out of:

- Any error, inaccuracy or omission in the printing or publishing of any advertisement;
- Any failure to publish an advertisement on the day / date or day / dates specified by the advertiser; or
- Any delay in forwarding or omission to forward replies to box numbers to the Advertiser.

4. The Publishers will endeavour to publish advertisements on the day / date or day / dates specified by the Advertiser but insertion days / dates cannot be guaranteed.

5. Where shrinkage of advertisement occurs for whatever reasons the advertisement will be charged to the nearest full centimetre. This will NOT apply to the full-page advertisements, which remain full pages even after shrinkage.

6. The Publishers reserve the right to reject an advertisement or to vary it in any way they deem fit, at any time before publication, whether or not the advertisement has already been accepted for publication.

7. Whilst every effort is made to minimise errors in advertisements, mistakes do sometimes occur. Advertisers or their agents should therefore check their advertisements and inform us of any errors immediately. Responsibility cannot be accepted for more than one incorrect insertion. Typographical or minor changes, which do not affect the value of the advertisement, do not qualify for republication or allowances.

8. All gross advertising rates (except classified lineage and semi-display) are subject to and include a 0.1% Advertising Standards Board of Finance surcharge, payable by the advertisers to help finance the self-regulatory control system administered by the Advertising Standards Authority.

9. All rates quoted are subject to VAT at the rate currently in force at the time the advertisement appears.

10. Should the rate for advertisements be altered the price for remaining insertions shall be revised accordingly or the publishers shall have the right to cancel the unexpired portion of the order.

11. The placing of an advertisement order will be deemed an acceptance of these conditions.

12. Account facilities are granted at the discretion of the Company.

13. All accounts must be settled within the terms agreed by the Company and the Customer.

(1) Should an advertiser be in breach of the agreed terms, the publisher shall be entitled to levy a 10% surcharge on the value of the whole debt in respect of accounts with terms of less than 30 days, and any discounts or commissions that had been allowed will be reclaimed.

(2) Regular monthly accounts that are in breach of the agreed terms will pay an interest rate of 6% above the current bank of England base rate for each month that the account is overdue and discounts or commissions that had been allowed will be reclaimed. Should Legal action be required the interest will be charged in accordance with the County Court Act 1984.

14. Where an advertiser instructs / appoints an advertising agent to act on their behalf, the advertiser will remain jointly and severally liable for payment in respect of an advertisement(s) should the appointed agent fail to pay. For the avoidance of doubt, the agent acts for the advertiser and not for the publisher with the agent being responsible for notifying the advertiser of this liability.

15. All queries must be notified, preferably in writing to the accounts department of the publisher within 7 days of the invoice date.

16. All digital services are maintained in partnership with the publishers' hosting service providers. Every effort is made to ensure the continuity of these services, but some occasional time downtime beyond the publishers control may occur. The publisher and its associated companies shall be under no liability if the production and distribution of web services is delayed or prevented by any cause beyond the control of the publisher.

17. The Publisher may provide voucher copies for published advertisements in electronic form only subject to certain criteria. Further information is available on request.

18. The copyright of advertisements produced wholly or partially by the Publishers belong to the Publishers. Advertisers may not reproduce such advertisements without the Publishers' consent.

EAGLES SOAR TO TRIUMPH AT OVAL

Cricket

Surrey v Essex Eagles (Essex won by 5 wickets)

Brian Jeeves reporting from the Kia Oval

IN form Essex Eagles continued their decent NatWest T20 Blast campaign at the Kia Oval against a star-studded Surrey outfit.

Essex welcomed Ravi Bopara and Ryan ten Doeschate back into the side while the big news coming out of Surrey was the inclusion of Kevin Pietersen. The former England man will always spark debate amongst enthusiasts of the game.

Nevertheless, on his day the irrepressible Pietersen should still be regarded as one of the greatest talents to have represented England in the modern era.

A crowd of around 20,000 had congregated on what was a glorious evening in the capital. Essex won the toss and elected to field. Surrey showed early intentions as Jason Roy hit a boundary with just the second ball off Phillips then smashed a huge six just an over later, this time Matt Salisbury was the bowler to suffer.

Essex made the breakthrough when Hashim Amla was spectacularly caught by Ben Foakes for 9 off the bowling of Tymal Mills with Surrey moving along steadily on 35. But Roy was looking in good nick, and together with Pietersen as allies at the crease, Surrey moved past 50 in the seventh over. But the home crowd were soon in for a jolt as Pietersen went, snared at long on by ten Doeschate for just 5. This after somewhat recklessly taking on the bowling of Bopara.

Roy continued to sparkle. He brought up his half century, hitting ten Doeschate through the covers for another boundary. But just moments later he was heading back to the pavilion on 57 having taken on one shot too many, Bopara once again benefiting from ten Doeschate's safe hands. Steven Davies followed soon after for a duck, this time it was Bopara in the field and Salisbury the bowler benefiting. Surrey were now stuttering on 111-4.

Surrey moved on before Gary Wilson's excellent knock of 45 was brought to an end by Reece Topley off Salisbury, then O'Brien was removed in quick succession when he found James Foster's gloves without troubling the scoreboard with Topley the bowler.

Azhar Mahmood (17*) and Robin Peterson (6*) carried the Surrey innings to its conclusion, finishing on 151-6 at a rate of just over 7.5 an over. Bopara the pick of the Essex attack with 2-24 off his 4 overs.

Essex opening pairing of Mark Pettini and Jesse Ryder made instant inroads into the Surrey total, this included a huge six from the latter off a loose delivery from Jade Dernbach. But Surrey made the breakthrough when Kevin O'Brien bowled Ryder for 31 with Essex on 37. The Eagles were in no mood for hanging around, Tom Westley guided the visitors past 50 up within 5 overs.

This was now regarded as Essex' match to lose. But when O'Brien ran out Pettini for 12, a sobering hush descended amidst the huge travelling Essex faithful.

Westley and Bopara moved Essex towards their target with some precise strokes before Bopara departed the scene thanks to a juggling catch from O'Brien, the England man had scored 15, with Essex now on 77-3.

Westley and ten Doeschate got Essex moving again before Westley lost his off stump to Mahmood for 44, but the damage had been done. Despite Foakes being run out by Davies for 5, a breezy knock of 43 by Dutchman ten Doeschate carried Essex toward their target. Foster put the hosts out of their misery, hitting a boundary facing his first ball, as Essex finished on 155-5, winning by 5 wickets with 7 balls to spare.

Surrey: H.M. Amla, J.J. Roy, K.P. Pietersen, S.M. Davies, G.C. Wilson, K.J. O'Brien, Azhar Mahmood, R.J. Peterson, Z.S. Ansari, G.J. Batty, J.W. Dernbach.
Essex Eagles: M.L. Pettini, J.D. Ryder, T. Westley, R.S. Bopara, R.N. ten Doeschate, B.T. Foakes, J.S. Foster, T.J. Phillips, M.E.T. Salisbury, R.J.W. Topley, T.S. Mills.

Counties to honour club legend Mike

ESSEX County Cricket Club and Kent Cricket have announced the launch of the new 'Mike Denness Challenge Shield', named in honour of the former cricketer, to be contested in all matches between the two counties.

"Mike was an outstanding cricketer for Kent, Essex and England and had the rare distinction of captaining neighbouring counties," said Kent Cricket president and former team mate Graham Johnson. "He holds a special place in the memories of both counties."

With a record of over 500 First Class and 200 List A games, Denness was a key part of a dominant Kent side in the early and mid-seventies which won numerous limited over trophies and the County Championship on a number of occasions. In the final four years of his playing career at Essex, he was a key figure in their 1979 County Championship win.

The shield will be contested in all matches, across all formats played between the counties during the season. Two points will be attributed to LV= County Championship wins, one point each for limited overs match victories, with the county with the most points at the end of the season having their name on the shield.

International at Orient ground

Jamaica 2-2 Egypt Brian Jeeves reporting from the Matchroom Stadium

LEYTON Orient's Matchroom Stadium provided the setting as Jamaica and Egypt went head-to-head on a damp night in E10.

This was an eagerly anticipated meeting as the teams stepped up preparations for the Caribbean and African Cup of Nations.

A small but enthusiastic crowd of 2,203 greeted the teams, and there was an evident contrast in styles. Egypt played a more patient game while Jamaica relied on power and pace.

The Jamaican support was buoyed by their team's start but within minutes they were behind. Mohamed El-Neny rose unchallenged to nod Khaled Kamar's corner beyond Jacomeno Barrett. Just after the half hour mark Jamaica drew level. Christopher Humphrey delivered from the right and Derby County man Dawkins was on hand with a neat finish from close range.

Jamaica had the final say of the opening period. Joel Grant produced some wizardry before dispatching a crisp left footed effort past El-Shenawi low into the corner of the net.

Jamaica started the second period on the front foot with Austin sending a snapshot just wide but relentless pressure from Egypt paid off when Basem Moursi used his head to direct Salah's centre past Barrett to restore parity.

Deputy chairman of the Leyton Orient Supporters' Club, Steve Jenkins, told Yellow Sport: "It would be good if a number of those that came this evening were here when the O's new campaign gets underway in August".

Athletics

HAVERING Athletics Club athletes had a golden day on Saturday as they returned from the Essex Schools Championships at Chelmsford with ten gold and seven other medals.

The Intermediate Girls impressed with half of the gold medal tally. After improving her legal best in her 100m heat Modupe Shokunbi went even faster in the final clocking 12.01s for a new championship best which had stood since 1995.

Hurdlers Michelle Hughes and Lucy Bailey both struck gold. Michelle, running for Southend Schools, was an easy winner of the opening event the 300m Hurdles and will win English Schools selection as she has the National Standard while Lucy won the 80m hurdles title but must await the selectors' decision.

In the field Freya Gutteridge took discus gold, and awaits the selectors' nod next week, while triple jump champion Ella Lindsay (Mid Essex) set a new competitive best but is short of the Schools' entry standard.

Jairzinho Morris and Aaron Freshwater both won county gold in the Year 7 events, which are not represented in the National Championships. Jairzinho faced stiff opposition and only a finishing dive clinched 100m gold, in a new personal best time and second on the club's Under 13 all-time list. Aaron Freshwater equalled his high jump best when it mattered to win gold.

In the Junior Girls' events Abigail Shipton made it a third sprint title for Havering athletes, as she took the 100m title in a new personal best but is short of the Schools' entry standard.

Katie Mitchell was another athlete to set new career marks as she trimmed her best in the 1500m for silver, Riva Siggins won discus silver in a new PB, while Becca Brown won 800m bronze.

Tom Pitkin had to settle for silver in the Intermediate Boys' 400m hurdles and hopes to be in the frame for English Schools selection. Another gold in the age group went to Michael Duncan who is shy of the entry standard.

Two more medals, gold and bronze, came late on when training partners Millie Hodges and Grace Newson both set personal best to win Year 7 hurdles podium places. Millie improved her best in her heat and came from behind to snatch gold in a photo finish as Grace was third, just outside the new PB set in her heat.

The Essex team selection panel will meet this weekend and will face a difficult task of choosing which of the 100 or so athletes with entry standards will make the 60-strong team for the English Schools event in Birmingham on July 11-12.

UK Women's League, Division 2, Round 2

Another fourth place finish in the second round fixture at a gloriously sunny Newham on Sunday looks to have secured another year in UK Women's League Div 2 for the senior ladies team.

Lauren Deadman was a class apart winning both of her events. She was almost 30 seconds clear in the 3000m from Bristol's 2012 Olympian Claire Hallissey and returned later to win the 1500m by the length of the straight in a season's best.

There were good points in the javelin as Emma Christmas was third in a centimetre short of 40m, while Louise Lockwood scored maximum points in the B string. Rachel Forder was second in the discus on her league debut and added shot points.

But the story of the day came in the A string 200m when 17-year old Tayla Humm found herself on her league debut matched against the inspirational Christine Ohuruogu who was representing her home club Newham. Tayla was close to her best in sixth as the World and Olympic Champion was second behind Milton Keynes' Joey Duck.

Tayla said afterwards "I spoke to Christine before the race and told her that I'd met her when I was in Year 7 and she was visiting her former school, St Edwards."

With just the third and final fixture remaining Havering will travel to Portsmouth on Sunday 6th July with a strong hope of securing another year in Division Two although an improved result from the relegation threatened hosts could drag the other teams above them into the mix.
